

NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY
CENTRAL SECURITY SERVICE
FORT GEORGE G. MEADE, MARYLAND 20755

Executive Registry

77-959

30 March 1977

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
CIA Headquarters Building
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner,

As the new Director of Central Intelligence, you could bestow a signal honor on the Government's elite professional cryptologic society by joining us at our Annual Reunion in June, so that we could make you an Honorary Member of our celebrated Dundee Society.

The Dundee Society, a select professional group within the National Security Agency, is made up of graduates of our most advanced course in cryptanalysis, which I have been teaching for the past twenty years. The Annual Reunions are special functions at which we have inducted notables in the government as Honorary Members of our society. In 1975 we had the privilege of bringing into our fold the Director of Central Intelligence, the Honorable William E. Colby,

Over 250 graduates, comprising a corps of the Agency's finest cryptanalysts, will gather for this Reunion, and they would all be honored to have the opportunity to see you inducted as an Honorary Member of the Dundee Society.

Ours is an ancient craft, but at NSA it is wedded to the most sophisticated of modern technology. The esprit de corps of the Dundee Society members is undeniably high, and the members are aware of the importance of their work to the security of our country.

The 1977 Annual Reunion luncheon will be held on 15 June in the STAT Ballroom of the Ft. Meade Officers Club.

Respectfully,

[Redacted Signature Box]